said most of the nine formerly homeless women she employs have found places to live since getting a job.

amount of fruit and vegetables in JP is minuscule (not to mention being processed beyond recognition);

Teresa's quotations from the Bible are often inexact: my rule has been to give her own words, approximating.